ABOUT THE CONFERENCE

Rule of law could also be the rule of love in appropriate situations. Compassion is not alien to Indian courts or to the Constitution of the country. While speaking about environmental protection, the Constitution motivates us "to have compassion for living creatures". Let us come together to discuss the 'Role of Jurists in Changing the World through Kindness & Compassion'.

Brahma Kumaris invites you to this conference to explore and experience how the dim light of humanity can be rekindled. Let us restore our innate qualities to create a world where each one follows all laws naturally.

ABOUT JURIST WING
