RISING JURISTS THROUGH SPIRITUAL EMPOWERMENT

Justice delivery is a pious duty in Bharat. In this transition period qua modern era, the workload is increasing on the Jurists & various practitioners continuously. As a result application of mind as well as other problems started affecting in getting and giving justice. The only SOLUTION can be found in Spirituality qua Rajyoga Meditation. Spirituality Empowers, Improves and Fasten the Relationship of oneself with the Own Being and with the Soul of others. This will ultimately increase the quality of delivering justice through the concentration power of the jurists' mind

Spirituality and Law both play a blended role in uplifting peace and harmony in society. Whereas Spirituality aims at realizing the divine potential of all human beings and inculcating feelings of universal brotherhood, Law aims at just society.

The Spirituality has potential to teach meaning of life which is not just sense pleasures however truth beyond that aiming at peace and harmony in society than materialistic possessions. Let us understand the lofty purpose of our life. In Gandhiji's words "In so far as we have made the modern materialistic craze our goal so far are we going downhill in the path of progress" The judiciary is the noblest instrumentality which can inspire and must be inspired to operate the transformation from hatred to love, from restlessness to peace, from evil forces to realization of the divine goodness that dwells in everyone.

Thus, we look forward to lighting a new vision among the judges and all beneficiaries of the world. With this objective in mind, the jurist wing of the RE&RF proposes to hold a National Jurist Conference for all the Hon'ble Judges and Practitioners of the Supreme Court and All High Courts including Professionals other forums to deliberate on the challenges outlined above so
